NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

The Ladies' Fair at Richmond cleared $300.

A Masonic picnic will be held at Kirksville tomorrow.

Ross Meece was held in $1,000 for killing Martin Vaughn in Pulaski.

The report that James Howard was killed at Manchester seems to be true. Gov. Bradley refused to pardon C. W. Williams, of Knox county, sent up for criminal assault.

Wm. Hayden, of Jessamine, dropped dead in a livery stable at Lexington from heart disease.

The Governor remitted a fine against Lawrence Brown, of Casey, for unlawful sale of liquors.

The Southern's freight depot at Harrodsburg was robbed of a lot of shoes consigned to W. F. Hall.

Herea will have a newspaper in a few days to be called The Citizen. Mr. T. G. Pasco will be editor.

J. G. Browning, a prosperous Adair county farmer, aged 58, committed suicide on account of ill health.

Miss Maria Sears has been appointed postmaster at Line Creek, Pulaski county, vice G. Randolph resigned.

Miss Julia Golings, of Laurel, went crazy over religion and tried to kill her mother and sister. She was sent to the asylum.

W. N. Green, who was given five years at London for killing a Negro named Mullins, was pardoned by Gov. Bradley.

William Blair was shot and instantly killed in a drunken quarrel at Jellico, by Fletcher Whitecotton, also colored. A fusillade of shots followed the quarrel.

The Gradyville correspondent of the Adair News says that O. C. Morrison, who is 84 years old, cradled wheat all day Monday and felt like a fighting cock that night.

A crowd of Whites yelled "Hurrah for Carlo Brittain" as young Edgar Garrard passed through Manchester, meaning the negro who killed Dan Garrard and who is said to have been defended by the Whites' money.

Mrs. Nancy S. Burnett, wife of C. H. Burnett, died at her home near Valley Oak, aged 50. Her remains were laid to rest at Friendship Church, in Rockcastle county, and funeral services were conducted by Rev. James A. Gragg.

The $5,000 damage suit against J. C. Buck, by John T. Lee, at Albany, resulted in a hung jury. Buck swore on the witness stand that a vision from Heaven caused him to recognize Lee as the boy who passed the $20 raised bill on him.

Thieves will not likely bother the possessions of Capt. W. E. Grubbs, of Shelby City, when it becomes generally known that he has a Mauser rifle which will kill at two miles. It was sent to him by his son, Col. Hayden Grubbs.

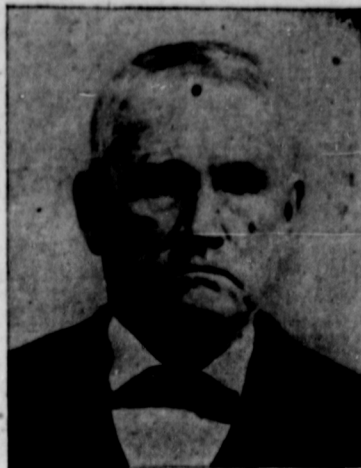

Newton R. Bright, brother of H. R. Bright, who married Mrs. Lizzie McAllister, of this place, accidentally shot himself while handling a pistol. The ball passed through the skin just under the left ear. It is a bad wound, but not necessarily fatal.

Wallace Elkin, brother of Zack Elkin, of Moreland, died in Louisville of cancer of the stomach, Tuesday, aged 29. He was a splendid young man and his death will cause regret wherever he is known. The remains were taken to Richmond for interment.

Oscar Johnson, who was on trial for disturbing the peace, last Tuesday, escaped before the verdict was rendered, but Squire Peyton proceeded with the evidence and the jury found him guilty fixing his punishment at 50 days in jail, and $100 and costs. He is still at large.—Powers cor. Advocate.

A stock company composed of Jamestown and Columbia capitalists, was organized at Jamestown to conduct a banking business. N. H. W. Aaron, Commonwealth's attorney, was elected president and W. S. Stone, a prominent Russell county attorney, cashier. The capital is $15,000.

R. B. Lucas, of Manchester, tells a Louisville paper that the Baker-Howard feud is at an end. He says that Mrs. Tom Baker has decided to go to her father, who is a prominent farmer in Indian Territory. She will take her children with her. He declares that the men who have been corraled and armed in the mountains have laid down their weapons and returned to their homes and to their work. A better and more secure feeling prevails throughout the terror stricken section. Everybody now appears to be satisfied to let the law take its course and the members of the factions are disposed to have peace. Leading citizens, who have taken no part in the feud, are now endeavoring to get the Whites, Howards, Bakers, Philpots and others involved in the fighting to agree to do all in their power to prevent further bloodshed. These men are said to be kindly to this idea, and when each faction is assured that no one of its side will receive harm at the hands of the enemy, it is thought peace will be permanently restored.

R. B. WOODS.

Believing as I do that we should honor the living as well as the dead, and for the gratification of his many admirers, I wish to give your readers a partial history and express my high appreciation of my esteemed and venerable friend and countryman, R. B. Woods. In attempting this, however, I realize my unworthiness. We of this generation have cause to be proud of our achievements, or rather of our surroundings, but let us not boast, for we stand upon the shoulders of the past. The subject of my sketch is a representative of a past, and shall I say of a better age and of sounder, purer social and religious methods than now exist? He was born Aug. 16th, 1814, on Dix River, six miles above Shelbyville, Bedford county, Tenn. He lived at that place until 23 years of age, at which time he went to Nashville where he remained two years, part of which time he attended school in what was then known as the co-operative school in that city, commencing, as he says at "baker." After this he accepted a proposition to go back to Bedford county and engage in running a hemp factory, where he remained three years and then removed to Pulaski county, where together with his brother, E. H. Woods, he engaged in the coal business for eight years. In this he was quite successful and accumulated considerable money. Later he formed a partnership with Dr. Walter Owsley.

In 1851 Mr. Woods married Miss Susan Fisher, granddaughter of Ephraim Pennington. Five children were born to them, of which only one survives—Mr. E. P. Woods—who has been a most devoted son to a noble father. In 1859 Mr. Woods bought the beautiful home where he now lives, and has ever since been actively engaged in farming and trading in stock. At the time he began trading, hogs brought $9 per hundred and mule colts which cost him $75 sold at the end of a year for $110 to $120. When his son, E. P. Woods, became 21 years of age, his father gave him a half interest in this business and together they have been most successful. But let us turn from the business side of Mr. Woods' life and look at him from a religious point of view, for not to speak of "Uncle Bob" (as he is affectionately called by his friends) from this view point would be to leave out by far the most interesting part of the character of this fine old gentleman. At the age of 18 he was convicted of sin and professed religion, but did not connect himself with the church for quite a number of years. On the 2d day of April, 1869, he and his wife were baptized and received into the Baptist church at this place by Rev. A. D. Rash. He is a most devoted Baptist and is a great student of the Bible. He knows it so thoroughly that he can quote almost any passage of scripture that you may ask for. He is a born theologian and can get at the bottom of knotty theological problems as quickly and clearly as half the preachers who have had years of training in seminary and college. Nothing so delights this good old man as to have a number of his friends to dine with him in his hospitable home and after dinner to seat himself with these chosen spirits under the shade of a tree and there while away an hour or two in friendly talk and argument about some mooted point in theology or doctrine, and woe be unto the unwary young theologian or the ill-prepared man of whatever calling, when he attempts to "run against Uncle Bob!" He will wish he had been better posted. He said to the writer that he used to depend upon the preachers for his interpretation of scripture, but now he depends upon the Bible itself, and his faith grows brighter day by day as he grows older. In his church Mr. Woods is very much loved and honored and is looked up to as quite a nestor. No innovation is ever attempted without first getting his opinion and judgment. He is a man of fine natural sense and had he had the early advantages of some others he would undoubtedly have made his mark in the world. He has a massive head of the Henry Clay type and with the opportunity would have made a statesman of no mean calibre. He has been very faithful in every relation of life and may this valuable life be spared for yet many years to come to both his family and church, for it will be a day of calamity to both when dear old "Uncle Bob" is called to come up higher. R. B. MAHONY.

The Methodist meeting increases in interest. Rev. Henry Mills is attracting much attention at his meetings by his excellent sermons.

We believe Pulaski is pursuing the right course when it was determined to vote on a bond proposition to build turnpikes. Rockcastle should do the same.

The Rockcastle Medical Association met here Thursday. Drs. Edmiston and E. J. Brown were the visiting physicians. Anelegant banquet was enjoyed at the Miller Hotel.

A postoffice has been established at Alice, Letcher county. George Stamper was appointed postmaster.

Hon. Charles E. Littlefield was elected to succeed the late Nelson Dingley as Congressman from the Second Maine district.

J. L. Whitehead, of Williamsburg, is spoken of for State Senator. He is a splendid gentleman, barring his politics and would make a capital senator.

Capt. Lorenzo Danford, serving his sixth term as Congressman from the Sixteenth Ohio district, died suddenly of heart disease at his country home near St. Clairsville, O.

The Lexington Herald prints a denial of the truth of the report that secret conferences have been held looking forward toward Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge's candidacy for Congress.

The treasury deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30 will be in the neighborhood of $100,000,000, yet the receipts are nearly $1,000,000 in excess of last year. The war revenue act has realized a little less than $100,000,000.

All the candidates, according to their statements to the reporters, are "feeling good" over their chances for nomination at the hands of the Democratic Convention. These joyful expressions leave us in doubt whether the candidates are all bounding optimists or plain, every-day bluffers.—Louisville Times.

LUNG IRRITATION.

Is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or a cold will not settle there. Twenty five cents at Penny's Drug Store.

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Louisville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

A chemist has discovered a solution into which if collars and cuffs are dropped perspiration will have no effect.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will make their annual visit to the poorhouse next Sunday afternoon, taking refreshments for the paupers. A sermon will be preached by Eld. C. E. Powell.

Further developments regarding the democratic county convention reveal the fact that, instead of the Stone men being Go (e) bled up, the Goebel men were Stoned in. A Stone man says that pressure was brought to bear on local politicians.

Mr. Wallace Elkin died in Louisville on Tuesday and the remains were buried in Richmond on Wednesday. He was a son of Garret Elkin, formerly of this county, and had a number of friends and relatives in this and Madison county.

The republican county convention, to be held to-day (Thursday), will send an unopposed delegation, subject to the judgment of Governor Bradley, as he is supposed to be posted in the matter and prepared to advise his old friends in reference to their vote.

The good citizens of our State are responsible for the corruption in conventions. Many will not come out and mix with the flouter and ruffian and there will be no change in affairs until they come out and defeat them. Good government is as necessary as good schools and is as much a man's business as the work on his farm or in his store. Come out and defeat the illiterate flouter.

The Lancaster Commercial Club met on Tuesday night to take steps toward getting the Southern railroad, as the route is being surveyed through the county. It is well known that the right-of-way must be given and Capt. Wm. Herndon and Hon. R. H. Tomlinson were appointed to go over the line and ascertain what it will cost. If the people consider their best interest and work together, we will get the road and this is our last chance, as there are no other inducements after South-eastern Kentucky has been reached by a road.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

Rev. W. M. Hicks has been arrested at New Haven charged with collecting money ostensibly for the Baptist Widows' and Orphans' Home, in Louisville, but without authority.

Evangelist F. M. Myers, of Jeffersonville, Ind., and Rev. Dickson, have closed a series of successful meetings at the Christian church at London. At Tilford's Pool, 20 converts were baptized, among whom were some of the most prominent people of the town.

There is a church in the town of Bergen, Norway, built entirely of paper. It is certainly the most novel structure in the world, being water proof in spite of the material used. It can seat more than 1,000 people in comfort and has been rendered water proof by a solution of quicklime, curdled milk and white of eggs.

THE EAGLE, KING OF ALL BIRDS.

Is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, styes, sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold at Penny's at 25 cents.

Dr. Thomas Osmond Summers, the yellow fever expert, late Mayor Surgeon in charge of the fever hospital at Santiago, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. Despondency, caused by fancied lack of appreciation of his services by the Government during the Spanish war is assigned as the cause of the rash act.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN.

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions, Best Pile cure on earth. 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

The Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company, the American Spirits Company and other concerns have combined to control the manufacture of Bourbon and rye whisky and spirits. The capital of the new concern is $125,000,000.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JUNE 23, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

GOEBEL AND STONE.

DRAW BLOOD FIRST AND TWICE.

ONE OR THE OTHER WILL LIKELY BE NOMINATED, POSSIBLY STONE.

THE LATEST.

LOUISVILLE, June 23.—Convention met at 7 P. M., last night and adjourned without doing anything, the credentials committee not being ready to report. The committee on resolutions will report endorsing the Goebel bill, declaring for Bryan in 1900, Blackburn to succeed Lindsay, free silver to be the dominant issue again, and Chicago platform to be reaffirmed in its entirety with the addition of a clause against trusts. Only two members of the committee opposed endorsing the Goebel bill and they thought it unnecessary. John B. Thompson denies the report that the Hardin men will bolt if things do not go their way. The Courier Journal says a sensation will be sprung today but does not say what it is. Stone and Goebel held a consultation and seem to understand each other. It looks very much like Goebel, but it may be Stone. Hardin seems to be beaten.

It is likely that the temporary organization will be made permanent.

As it turned out, the chairman might have said "Ten Hours for a Rough House," instead of "The Convention will be in Order," for it never was for a moment in an orderly condition and at times it was a fighting, howling, disgraceful mob. We have been attending State conventions since 1876 and we have never seen the one at Louisville nearly approached in disorder and acts unbecoming men met for the great purpose of naming the next State officers of Kentucky. The battle on the temporary chairmanship was the most stubbornly contested conflict of the kind ever waged and the roll call as permitted by the chairman, the longest and most unnecessarily delayed one on record.

Music Hall was jammed with a perspiring, impatient crowd, when at 11:16 Wednesday Maj. P. P. Johnston called the convention to order and introduced the Rev. Coleman to invoke the divine blessing. Without an opening speech he proceeded to have the districts called for nominations for temporary chairman. The first district, through Ollie James, put Judge D. B. Redwine, of Breathitt, the candidate of the Goebel-Stone combination, in nomination, and the 2d through Urey Woodson seconded it. There were no responses till the 11th was called when James Garnett, of Adair, nominated Capt. W. H. Sweeney, of Marion, John B. Thompson, Hardin's right bower, seconding it. The call of counties was then ordered and it showed many contests. Charley Bronston voted Lexington 10 for Sweeney and one for Redwine, but Moses Kauffman disputed his right and the county was passed after some sharp talk between the contestants. The result of the ballot showed Redwine in the lead and but 40 votes short of a majority. Chairman Johnston then went through the contestants' claims and three or more hours were consumed by the work. After the contests had been passed on Redwine was found to have 570 votes, but the Hardin crowd demanded a recapitulation and a worse wrangle than ever was experienced.

Instead of declaring the vote when it was apparent to everyone who had kept count that Redwine had the majority, Chairman Johnston, in his apparent effort to further Hardin's interests by the election of Capt. Sweeney chairman, kept reopening contests that he had passed upon, permitting others and changing his rulings in still others, holding the matter open till a fight on the stage forced an adjournment after eight hours of continuous session. The Hardin men fought with the desperation of despair and it was not until the night session was far consumed before the chairman reluctantly announced the final recapitulation which showed Redwine with 551-1-6 votes and Sweeney 529-5-6. On taking the chair Judge Redwine made a very short speech and after he had been authorized to appoint two members each from the State-at-large on the three committees, the convention adjourned till 10 A. M. yesterday, the selection of a temporary chairman having consumed the entire day.

In the 8th district committee meeting the combine had everything its own way. The Hardin-Thompson crowd tried to throw Jack Chinn down for the State Central committee with Mr. Hoover, of Jessamine, but Chinn won in a walk, receiving 43 to 35 votes. He didn't get his own county, but he did get Madison that more than offset it. Simeon Cook was chosen executive committee member on organization, Hon. Jas. B. McCreary on resolutions and Senator George T. Farris on credentials. Col. Chinn is mad sure enough with those he has always fought for and if his enmity doesn't count for much in the future we have mistaken his make up.

In his effort to fly in the face of all precedent and decide contests on their merits instead of by credentials, Chairman Johnston made a miserable botch of it and came near causing the convention to break up in a row. Most of his decisions were rotten. A chairman who goes in to put his man up whether or no is a mighty good one to drop and the fact that Mr. Johnston has been dropped shows that the convention entertained that idea.

Jim Williams and Dr. Berry were the sergeants-at-arms and their rough manner of speaking to delegates came near precipitating a bloody battle. Ed Saulsberry, of Henry, a brother of G. W., of Middleboro, was called down by them, but they wished they hadn't been so previous before the thing was over. Pistols, knives and other weapons were drawn and a general stampede resulted.

On counting noses the Goebel and Stone men found that in order to secure the temporary organization, they must combine. There was much difficulty in effecting it, however, owing to the conflicting interests of the candidates for minor offices, but it was finally arranged Tuesday evening and the leaders of the two candidates went to work to elect their man.

The fact that Jesse M. Alverson, of Stanford, was put on the committee on permanent organization by acclamation when all the other places were hotly contested, shows how high the splendid young democrat and indefatigable party worker stands in the estimation of the leaders of the district. It is rare that such an honor goes to one so young or so deserving.

Boyle coquetted a while with the Hardin men, but seeing their capers Judge Breckinridge swung the whole vote in line for Redwine. Lincoln, Garrard, Madison, Rockcastle and Shelby also voted for Redwine, giving him a majority of the counties and a big majority of the vote of the 8th district.

After John S. Rhea had voted the county of Logan for Redwine, Marmaduke Bowden arose in behalf of the contesting delegation and said the county was against "trusts and combinations of all kinds." "Sit down, you voted for McKinley," was fired at him from all sides and he sat, while Rhea's vote stood recorded.

Very little was done Wednesday but wrangle after the chairman had announced the names of the members of the committees from the State at large. The committee on credentials had a great deal of work to do and after finding that it could not report, the convention adjourned till 7 P. M.

In the district meetings the Stone-Goebel forces had an easy victory for the committees and they got the party organization also, controlling every district except the 4th, 7th and 11th. The Hardin men bolted in the 2d and there was a contest in the 5th.

The order of nominations has been agreed on as follows: Governor, lieutenant governor, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, secretary of State, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of agriculture.

The Stone-Goebel combine seems to be winning out all along the line. It first secured the party management in the State and then against the most adverse rulings secured the temporary organization.

There seems to be a growing feeling for Judge Breckinridge for attorney general and he is very sure of the nomination, if Hardin does not triumph.

Harvey Myers' contest against Goebel in Kenton was so flimsy that even Chairman Johnston couldn't help deciding against him. Red Fox Bronston seemed to take delight in voting Lexington against his former friend, Goebel, but his right was contested.

Senator Farris was elected chairman of the committee on credentials, another very worthily bestowed honor.

Charley Bronston is going to take a tour of Europe. Pity he hadn't gone before the convention.

Hades isn't half as hot as the convention hall is when the body is in action.

It looks like it will be either Stone or Goebel, most probably Stone.

The effort of John B. Thompson to turn down Col. Jack Chinn, as executive committee member from this district, is about the worst instance of ingratitude we have ever known, and if the colonel doesn't make him rue it, those who know him will be surprised. The Madison county delegation, headed by Gov. McCreary, rebuked the Hardin crowd, however, and in future we take it that Chinn will stand as strongly for the governor as he has stood against him heretofore. The action of Thompson angered Chinn very much and he was heard to remark that all the trouble he had ever gotten into was for standing by his friends, the more especially the Thompsons and that he would in the future be as relentless an enemy of the latter as he has been a faithful friend. People generally detest ingratitude and in this fight will side with Col. Chinn, no matter if they have been against him before.

It is said that Gov. Bradley will offer $500 for the assassin of Tom Baker. Will Sheriff White claim it?

Jeffries, the pugilist, has gone into the saloon business in New York.

It is said that Gov. Bradley will appoint Judge W. L. Brown, of London, to hold a special court at Manchester. Bad selection if it is made. An outside man, with no shadow of prejudice against one or the other faction of feudists, would be much more likely to bring law and order into better repute than a local man. The other intimation that the Governor will appoint George Denny as special prosecutor, is much more reasonable. The Roaring Bull of Bashan could scare the natives to death with his fog horn voice which he wouldn't be afraid to raise to its highest key. It is hardly likely that he will be appointed, however, unless the governor hopes thereby to get rid of an ancient enemy by getting him killed by the feudists.

DURING and before the convention, the Louisville Dispatch has demonstrated its utter unreliability as a newspaper. In its efforts for Hardin it has shown itself a greater liar than the Post, whose mendacity is proverbial. When papers color the facts to suit their opinions they soon lose out of public confidence.

The republican State convention promises to be a tame affair so far as the nomination for governor is concerned. Torney General Taylor has already 600 votes and is as sure of the nomination as the time arrives. Stone is credited with 94 votes and Pratt with but 14.

THE female college that brought itself into notice by conferring the degree of doctor of civil laws on McKinley, left out a word that in his case should be in the degree. Doctor of civil service laws would more appropriately express it.

WON AGAIN.—It's the same old tale—our boys won again. The Harrodsburg team was the one this time to suffer defeat at the hands of the champions. The score was 36 to 18 and was an uninteresting game after the second inning, when the score stood one to nothing in our favor. About the only feature of the game was the large number of scores. The champions will play a return game at Harrodsburg Tuesday afternoon next.

OUT of 28 white teachers examined for school certificates, nine lost out entirely, Supt. G. Singleton tells us, and of 13 colored, only five passed. Twenty more persons of the 2d examination, are yet to hear their doom. This is the day for the 2d examination of colored teachers and about 10 are on hand.

GOOD GARDENER.—F. K. Tribble, the avowed old bachelor, is proving to the public that he is by odds the finest gardener in this section. About the time beans were being shipped from the South, he came in with lots of that splendid vegetable, while for more than a week past he has been supplying our merchants with corn. Some good woman is missing lots by not taking Kenley in out of the wet.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Andrew Tucker, son of W. T. Tucker, came near being killed while cutting wheat yesterday. He and the driver got off of the binder to move a shock of fodder, and when Tucker attempted to mount the saddle mule, the girth broke and the animal shied, throwing him under the machine. Both of his legs were considerably cut and his collar bone was broken. Fortunately the grain wheel struck a rock, which raised the blade, or the young man would have been killed.

IN the circuit court Tuesday Greenberry Bright, Negro, was given a year for breaking the window of Beazley & Carter and stealing oranges. The grand jury has returned 13 indictments two against the Standard Oil Co., for peddling without license. J. T. Hackley was indicted for trespass on his brother A. M. Feland. The county officers made settlements and the amounts were turned over to the trustee of the jury fund. John Turnbull lost out in his suit against the L. & N. for killing stock.

KENNEDY.—Mrs. Rebecca, wife of Ben M. Kennedy, died at her father's, Rev. W. T. B. White, at 10:30 yesterday morning after a protracted illness of a complication of troubles. Besides her husband, two daughters, one and three years old, survive. She was a splendid woman and her death is keenly felt by those who knew and loved her. After services at her father's at 10 o'clock this morning the remains will be laid to rest in the Newland burying ground. The grief stricken ones have the sympathy of the entire community in their dark hour of trouble.

THE meetings at the court-house conducted by Rev. G. A. Klingman continue with increasing audiences and interest. To-night the preacher will discuss in the light of God's word, "Confession," and Saturday night, "Baptism." Sunday there will be three services and at 11 A. M. the Lord's supper will be observed after "Fellowship" has been discussed; at 3 P. M. the subject will be "The Holy Spirit" and at 8 "Sanctification." Monday night "The Christ Life," Tuesday, "The Basis of Truth," Wednesday, "Love Toward God," Thursday, "Love Toward Man," and Friday night, the last of the meeting, a plea for unity will be made. Mr. J. I. Brown and wife, of Louisville, have arrived and are conducting the singing.

THE GLORIOUS 4TH.—A meeting of those favoring a 4th of July celebration was held at the engine house last night when A. A. Warren was made chairman and W. S. Burch secretary. The committee on program appointed is A. A. Warren, G. L. Penny and W. S. Burch. The program in full has not yet been made out, but the following is an outline: Procession, consisting of bands, floats and the like to start at 10 o'clock, after which wheelbarrow races, bag races, bicycle races, etc., will be held till 12 o'clock, at which time adjournment will be made till 2 P. M. From that hour to 4 speeches and music will be enjoyed in the court-house yard and at 4 o'clock a base ball game will be played. At 8 fireworks will commence and for an hour or so be kept up. Postmaster J. C. Florence will be marshal of the day, H. J. McRoberts and W. S. Burch will secure speakers, while C. C. Carson and George DeBord, Jr., will look after the music. A big time is expected and the merchants and others have contributed with fair liberality to the fund to push the celebration along.

As the time gets shorter, the stock lower, the prices get smaller. Rackett Store.

Junius H. Reid, one of the West End's most popular young men, was married at the Gilcher House, Danville, yesterday afternoon, to Miss Emma, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Morse, of Hustonville. Rev. B. J. Pinkerton performed the ceremony and they were accompanied to Little Britain by Miss Bertha Morse, sister of the bride, and Mr. James B. Cook. The marriage is the result of a long courtship and that it will prove a happy one we earnestly believe and hope. The bride is a beautiful little brunette, very popular and is a musician of a high order, while the groom, whom everybody knows and likes, is one of the finest young men in the county. He was, until a few weeks ago, connected with Penny's drug store here, where he made friends of all with whom he came in contact. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL extends heartiest congratulations and wishes them a happy voyage over the sea of life.
